

GE

Handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is faint and difficult to decipher but appears to contain several lines of cursive script.

Handwritten mark or symbol, possibly a stylized letter or a decorative flourish, located in the lower right quadrant of the page.